

Sabbath Song

inspired by Suzanne Singer

Blessed be the braided loaves of challah, the bread that we break together Blessed be the fruits of the vine, the wine grown by wind and weather And blessed be the lights of the candles shining bright, that help to illumine our way
But most of all, blessed be He, who brings us the Sabbath day.

Blessed be our people Israel, the brethren that dwell together Blessed be the mitzvot great and small, with which we can help our Creator And blessed be the might of the Torah, our delight, that helps to illumine our way
But most of all, blessed be He, who brings us the Sabbath day.