

The King and His People are One.

Mighty is the strength of the Blackhammer's arm But one man alone cannot win the fray
But when he takes command of Atlantia's force Then the King is victorious that day

CHORUS: For the King gives His life for the land He must hold
 And the Queen gives Her honor, more precious than gold
 Both in peace and in war, from the mountains to the shore
 The King and His people are one!!

Gentle is the touch of the Queen's healing hands And strong the metal links that She casts
But when those links united become a golden chain Forever will knighthood's glory last! CHORUS

Great is the love of our King for His Queen In battle He fights for Her hand
And if They can inspire that love at every hearth Then harmony will reign throughout the land
CHORUS

Noble are the folk of Atlantia fair Their deeds often bring great renown
And when they stand together beside His Majesty Then no enemy dare triumph o'er our Crown

CHORUS: For the King gives His life for the land He must hold
 And the Queen gives Her honor, more precious than gold
 Both in peace and in war, from the mountains to the shore
 The King and His people are one , they are one!!
 The King and His people are ONE!
